PH of NC “Phlocks” St Pat’s Parade

With 150 members and guests, the PH of NC brought their usual tailgate philosophy to the Raleigh St. Patrick's Parade. Beads and candy was tossed to parade viewers and the fun flowed like Guinness (in a red cup). Thanks to everyone who helped create, design and build the float, and help with the tailgate. Thanks also to Duane, Tim & Dave for the use of their equipment, to the Eberle's for the beads and finally thanks to Mike for proper mannequin breast hand placement!

Helping Make A Difference One Head At A Time!

March 24th marked the fifth Annual St Baldrick's Day Shaving of the Parrot Heads at Ruckus' Pizza & Pasta in Cary. The 12 member team raised over $3500 for childhood cancer research and included 2 'keets plus our first (hopefully not last) female participant! We also gained a couple new members in the deal!

Buffett Performs in Omaha

Jimmy Buffett and the Coral Reefer Band performed in Omaha (the last time he performed there was in 1985).

Buffett Omaha contd...

The set list included the debut of Lionel Richie's "All Night Long" for the final encore.

From the Omaha World-Herald: "A special guest at Buffett concert"

Jimmy & "Cousin" Warren Buffett croon while Mike Utley checks his 401k

An unbilled guest star appeared on-stage with Jimmy Buffett at his concert last Saturday night.

Warren Buffett, coming off his recent performance at the Omaha Press Club Show, took the stage again, but this time he didn't sing nor did he play his famous ukulele.

Instead, Warren Buffett jokingly welcomed everyone to the Berkshire Hathaway stockholders meeting.

At that point, Jimmy interjected, telling Warren that the meeting was actually next month.

This is not the first joint appearance by the two Buffetts, who are not related, though they confess to being longtime fans of one another. At the 2007 annual Berkshire meeting, in a movie shown before the start of the session, one snippet included Warren playing his ukulele with Jimmy on guitar.

Buffett Will Perform At Jazz Fest This Year

Jimmy Buffett along with Mac McAnally will perform an acoustic set on the Acura stage on Thursday May 3 at 5:55 PM at the New Orleans Jazz Fest. They will be playing in place of Pearl Jam frontman Eddie Vedder. Vedder canceled his Jazz Fest show, and postponed the rest of his solo ukulele tour, because of a nagging injury to his arm.
