“Awesome”... “This is the best!”... “ It’s what being a Parrot Head is about”

This is what was heard Saturday November 10th when over 30 members donated enough items to fill 40 boxes for 2 and 4 legged troops stationed on the far side of the world.

Mike Dorman of Military Missions In Action coordinated the group, which filled boxes with everything from Cheerwine to Milkbones to help bring some “home” to our service members.

After loading the boxes, Mike will label and ship them to various Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines stationed around the world keeping us safe and free.

Thanksgiving is nearly here, which means we're only about a month away from Jesus' and Jimmy Buffett's birthday!

What better way to get into the holiday spirit than by listening to Jimmy's only Christmas album!

"Here in the Christmas season of 1996, it is my turn to give you a present for the holidays," Buffett says in the album liner notes. "Christmas Island is a collection of songs, not ladled over with sugary sentimentality and not too far out there in the strange corridors down which my mind sometimes wanders, and I hope it is what you would expect from the Christmas War baby turned island boy born on the day W.C. Fields died."

Christmas Island features the following tracks:

Christmas Island

Jingle Bells

A Sailor's Christmas

Happy Xmas (War Is Over)

Up On The House Top

Mele Kalikimaka

Run Rudolph Run

Ho Ho Ho And A Bottle Of Rhum

I'll Be Home For Christmas

Merry Christmas, Alabama (Never Far From Home)

Work begins on Margaritaville Atlantic City complex

From CBSNews.com

Atlantic City's casinos came through Superstorm Sandy just fine, even if few people realize it.

With the industry reeling from the aftermath of the storm, which wrecked thousands of homes and businesses in New Jersey and New York, the resort town got a psychological boost and a financial vote of confidence Wednesday as work began on a new $35 million Jimmy Buffet-themed entertainment complex on the beach.

Construction crews started work on the Margaritaville project at Resorts Casino Hotel, in what casino president Gary Van Hettinga called a vote of confidence in the seaside resort's long-term viability.

"It shows we are extremely confident that the future of Atlantic City is bright and that non-gaming amenities are an essential aspect of it," he said as he watched crews with blow torches dismantle a large billboard across from the casino where the 16,000-square foot Landshark Bar & Grill will rise.

As is the case with other Margaritaville properties owned by entertainer Jimmy Buffett, plans call for island-themed landscaping, including palm trees, more than a dozen cabanas, two beach volleyball courts, a bocce ball court, two horseshoe pits and a fire pit. An adjacent surf shop also is planned.

The complex is expected to be open by Memorial Day weekend.

Don't forget the Annual Meeting in January,

it's kind of a big deal!

and maybe Art will bring his easel...

Have a Phintastic Holiday Everyone!
